

If, as provided for in Article I.6, a financial guarantee is required for the payment of pre-financing, as performance guarantee or as retention guarantee, it must fulfil the following conditions:

- (a) the financial guarantee is provided by a bank or a financial institution approved by the contracting authority or, at the request of the contractor and with the agreement of the contracting authority, by a third party;
- (b) the guarantor stands as first-call guarantor and does not require the contracting authority to have recourse against the principal debtor (the contractor).

Pre-financing guarantees must remain in force until the pre-financing is cleared against interim payments or payment of the balance. The contracting authority must release the guarantee fully after final approval of the supply, as provided for in the contract.

Retention money guarantees cover full delivery of the supply in accordance with the contract including during the contract liability period and until its final approval by the contracting authority.
